1,000 Days: Change a Life, Change the Future

NEW YORK, NY, Sept. 21 -- Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton and Micheal Martin, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Ireland, hosted a panel discussion highlighting the 1,000 Days: Change a Life, Change the Future initiative. The goal of the initiative is to reduce child undernutrition. The initiative targets the crucial 1,000 day period of a child's life – beginning with the mother's pre-natal care and continuing until a child is 2 years old.

Other panelists included Mr. Muhtar Kent, Chairman and President of Coca-Cola; Ms. Maria Eitel, President of Nike Foundation; Mr. Tom Arnold, Chief Executive of Concern Worldwide; and Mr. David Beckmann, President of Bread for the World.
